OMEGA COMPLEX

CHAPTER II

Excerpt from Professor McNamara's notes on The Omega Project

THE TUNGUSKA CATASTROPHE:

On 30 June 1907, a gigantic explosion (equivalent to 1000 times larger than the Hiroshima bomb) took place around 7 o'clock near the Tunguska River in Siberia. The explosion, detectable from 1500 km away, caused considerable damage within a 100 km radius of the epicenter (devastated forests, fires…) as well as a dust cloud similar to that of a volcano.

The cause of this event is still a mystery and numerous theories, more or less suspicious, try to provide an explanation: an asteroid explosion, a UFO crash, Nikola Tesla's "Death Ray"…

The theory that is of interest within the context of the Omega Project is the one formulated by Al Jackson and Mike Ryan in 1973. According to this theory, a micro black hole passed through the Earth, exiting twelve minutes later in the North Atlantic. The theory of relativity states that travelling through time is possible but two black holes, one for entry and one for exit, are necessary (to put it simply, a worm hole is used). Wood, by creating a black hole in 2127, was able to time travel and come back to 20 June 1908 at the moment of the Tunguska Catastrophe.

*Nikola Tesla, a genius scientist and inventor from the 19th century who has been somewhat forgotten by history, tried to produce a "death ray". It was an electromagnetic beam capable of transporting an incredible quantity of energy and able to kill from distance. No historical proof confirming the real world implementation of such a device has ever been found…

You know why I came... but if I stayed, it's for different reasons
Get moving you won't escape from your only vegetable meal of the year!!!
Angie

UGH...
CRAC
Where do you think you are, you filthy pervert? Do you think I came here because I was interested in you?
Err... No But then why did you hug me two minutes ago?
Pff... I did that on the spur of the moment to give you some courage. Plus, who knows, it might be the first and last time you had the chance to hug a hottie like me!

OK, I got the message. I'm not very sharp.
Whatever happens tomorrow, I do not control my fate. However, I'll always have these feelings for you. Nothing nor nobody will ever be able to take this away from me... And your lousy temper won't change anything!
Your real problem is talking too much.
KAMA AND ANGIE. PIEDMONT REGION, NORTH CAROLINA. FRIDAY 9 JANUARY 1987.

SARA, ANANKE AND WOOD
NEW PENTAGON, 1990
Why? With Sho's help, I can eliminate Stigma and destroy your cursed Omega Complex without any problem!
Without knowing its real purpose? What if I said you misunderstood the meaning of my time travel?
I know what you think, Sara. But killing me after I free your friend will be meaningless
Don't listen to him, Sara, he just wants to get us confused
Hmm... To save your friends who are being massacred by Stigma, is that enough?
Wood, give me at least one believable reason to spare your life

He was kept in a mixture of Ghost and liquid nitrogen to conserve him, and neutrons to strengthen him.
This is the cryogenic chamber I used. Sho must have regenerated after staying in it for 3 years
Phiiiii
YOSHITSUNE!
You can talk later. If we don't hurry, Kame will be crushed to death.

Shall we get serious, Stigma?

Perfect! The family gathering is complete, which means you have nothing but babies defending your base!
You must have offered something incredible for them to accept you on their side, Wood!
You underestimate the Omega Knights. The renegades you hired will never enter the New Pentagon!
You mean my mercenaries? They are only puppets, my little diversion. Your real problem is that I've already corrupted half of the Omega Knights who are supposed to protect you!

Your friends are badly injured. Nothing but my science and the Omega Complex can save them now. I have to take them all to sub-level 7.
Let Wood do whatever he wants for now. We need to settle the score with Stigma first.
I know, but we don't have a choice.
Sho, it's a trap.

WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR? GO!

KRAK
BLAM

YEAH, LONG LIVE THE BETA KNIGHT!
Thank you, Colonel... But why are members of the Order of Omega attacking us?
PFFF... These foul creatures sully the Omega Knights' honor
Because they have betrayed us, Sergeant. They have sided with the terrorists of Stigma!
KRAAA!

THIS IS BAD! INFORM ALL YOUR MEN, THE BASE... NO, THE WHOLE REGION MUST BE EVACUATED, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!
This level of Gray

Your sense of humor hasn't gotten better with age, Stigma.
We attack immediately, Sara. We can't risk giving him time to recover.
You've gotten slightly better since the last time, kids. But you shouldn't have left Wood alone.

W... Wood... The Omega Project... It must be stopped... Use... The 7th sword of the Sho clan...
No... I am the 7th sword, Durandal of Rocamadour.

That's why you had such a level of Gray without being irradiated
Sho no Kotaro my father, understood quickly that he wouldn t be able to destroy Durandal So he used my body to hide it and put it out of Wood s reach
ARGH...
What ??
Yoshitsune IF Wood awoke you today, it's because he knew I wouldn t entrust Durandal to anyone but you This sword will turn you into a Blazar capable of slaying Stigmat

Yoshitsune, don't let me die for nothing...
Thank you for your trust, my love. I will save you, I swear.
